Submission Guidelines

Every submission must meet the requirements below. Papers that fail to comply with the formatting, originality, citation or submission rules may be rejected.

01 WORD LIMIT

5,000–6,000 words, excluding footnotes and references.

02 ORIGINALITY

Submissions must be original and unpublished. Papers with substantial plagiarism, or submitted elsewhere, may be disqualified.

03 AI-GENERATED CONTENT

AI-generated submissions will be discarded. The paper must reflect the author's own research, analysis and arguments.

04 RESEARCH QUALITY

Preference goes to data-driven, empirically supported papers. Use relevant legislation, judicial decisions, government reports, empirical data and credible academic sources wherever appropriate.

05 FORMATTING

Font	Size	Line spacing	Alignment	File format
Times New Roman	12 pt	1.5	Justified	PDF

06 CITATION STYLE

Cite all legal authorities according to The Bluebook: A Uniform System of Citation (21st ed.). Footnotes are required. Cases, statutes, constitutional provisions, books, journal articles, reports and online sources follow the applicable Bluebook rules.

Structure of the Paper

To maintain academic rigour, the research article should preferably include the following sections.

01	Title	Clear and concise, reflecting the central issue examined.
02	Abstract	A structured summary of about 350–400 words: background, research problem and objectives, methodology, data sources and analytical approach, key findings, and the conclusion and significance of the study.
03	Keywords	4–6 terms representing the core themes, arranged alphabetically.
04	Introduction	Research context, objectives, scope and problem statement.
05	Methodology	Research design, data collection tools, quantitative or qualitative approach, analytical framework and techniques used.
06	Findings & Discussion	Presentation, interpretation and critical analysis of empirical data and key insights.
07	Comparative Analysis	Cross-jurisdictional or contextual comparison, wherever relevant, for a broader perspective.
08	Critical Analysis	Evaluation of legal frameworks, judicial approaches and policy implications, supported by original arguments.
09	Conclusion & Recommendations	Summary of findings with practical, legal or policy implications and recommendations.
10	References / Authorities	All sources cited in accordance with the Bluebook, 21st Edition.
